

Unstoppable Communication

From Conflict to Clarity

"I've lived through some terrible things in my life, some of which actually happened."

—Mark Twain

What if the basis of your choices and decision making isn't what you think it is?

What if there is something that affects all human communication that you are not taking into account?

Check it out for yourself...the last time you had a frustrating or ineffective conversation, did you later have a "could have, would have, should have" conversation with yourself? Do you promise yourself not to say things (again) and find yourself saying them anyway? Do you find yourself and team members at work stuck in repetitive conversations and loops no matter how much training they've had?

You will discover a game changing, simple fact that will alter everything

This discovery will leave you able to:

- De-escalate and resolve conflicts.
- Leave conversations free of resentment or regret.
- Acquire new levels of credibility with others.
- Avoid misunderstandings while spending less time explaining what you mean.
- Create peace of mind for yourself and others.

Join us for a 2-hour intensive session on how to break ineffective communication patterns and leave with tactical actions to improve your leadership, teamwork, and communication.
